

CLUTTER FREE ORGANIZING, INC™

“You Deserve to Be...Clutter Free!”

Biographical Information:

Judy Lubowicki, CPO® (Certified Professional Organizer)

Member: NAPO - National Association of Professional Organizers

Member & Past Vice President: Southeast Michigan Chapter – NAPO

Member: National Study Group On the Chronically Disorganized - NSGCD

Judy is a graduate of Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo, Michigan where she received a BBA with Majors in both Accounting and Communications.

Judy has a diverse business background.

She has been employed with multiple Fortune 500 companies: Domino's Pizza, Headquarters, Ann Arbor, MI and Kodak Corporation, Qualex Division, Novi, MI. In addition, Judy has worked for regional and local companies: Plante and Moran, CPA, Kalamazoo, MI; Dale Carnegie Courses offered by Ralph Nichols Corporation, Livonia, MI; and New World Systems, Troy, MI. She has also assisted a non-profit youth training organization called Reaching Higher, Inc., located in Brighton, MI. She currently serves as a member on its Board of Directors.

She has functioned in the capacities of: Accountant, Tax Specialist, Executive Assistant, Trainer, Course Developer, Project Manager, Technical Software Specialist, Trainer the Trainer, and Organizing Professional (including Time Management).

In 2007 Judy became distinguished as one of the first Professional Organizers in the Nation to become certified by the Board Of Certification For Professional Organizers. Earning her the designation of CPO®.

In 2004 Judy left the corporate environment to found her own professional organizing company, Clutter Free Organizing, Inc. To date, Judy and her company of organizers have served clients throughout Michigan and in Georgia, Illinois, and Ohio. They have over 6,000 combined hours of direct professional service with clients. She has been interviewed by numerous publications and radio shows for her expertise on organizing and productivity. Her expertise is also sought by other professional organizers regarding books, products, and organizing training programs.

Over the past 15 years, Judy has conducted training programs for thousands of participants throughout the United States. She has conducted training on both technical and non-technical topics. The participants have ranged from school youth to homemakers to corporate executives. Her diverse career experience has also provided her with a background in Quality Processes and Systems, Human Behavioral Styles (DISC), and Systems Development.

Judy is skilled in presenting to businesses, organizations, community groups, and others about the benefits and principles of organizing and productivity. She also conducts 1 – 4 day workshops on developing, and implementing organizing plans, completing organizing projects, productivity and time management.

Certificate of Completion: Julie Morgenstern's Course: Organizing From the Inside Out
Certified Professional Organizer (CPO®) – Received 5/22/07 – from Board of Certification for Professional Organizers